I hereby certify that, according to the Records of the First Church in Beverly, Mass, Samuel Arbuckle & Abigail Young were married August 9, 1774, by Joseph Willard, the then Pastor of said Church.

C. T. Thayer, present
Minister of said Church.

Beverly, Aug 3, 1838. —

Abigail Roberts
Jasuel Arbuckle
widow of Sam. Arbuckle 36-37 in bed Greater of Beverly -

I, Abigail Roberts, of Salem in the County of Essex, aged 86 years, on oath declare that I am the Widow of Samuel Arbuckle, late of Beverly in said County: that he enlisted and served as a corporal in Capt. Williams's Company in Col. John Greaton's Regiment in the Massachusetts Line and in Vaggin's Company in the same Regiment from February 6th 1777 to Feb'y 6th 1780 and he also served as a private in Col. Sheldon's Regiment from March 16, 1780 to Dec. 31, 1780: and she has understood he was killed in action during the War.

In 1793 she was again married to Henry Stacy of Beverly who died in 1794: and she was again in 1809 married to Charles Roberts who was lost at sea in 1810: and so all her husbands are dead.

Her said husband Samuel Arbuckle was at the time of his enlistment and at the time of his death an inhabitant of Beverly aforesaid: and she now is & has never ceased to be an inhabitant of Massachusetts.

If allowed the Bounty Land, she elects to receive fifty dollars in lieu of it.

She believes he never received money or land under previous Resolves.

I Fanny Stacy of Salem aged 45 years on oath testify That I am well acquainted with Mrs Abigail Roberts, of Salem; she is the widow of Samuel Arbuckle, formerly of Beverly, who was a Revolutionary Soldier and died in the Revolutionary War, as I have always understood & believe.
Mrs Roberts was married about 46 years ago to Henry Stacy who died a year or two after their marriage; and 1809 she was again married to Charles Roberts, a seafaring man, and he sailed on a voyage in 1810 and has never since been heard of.
Since which time she has remained a widow. Fanny Stacy
